Game looks

Nia and Reed, painted into each game. Bubble is unchanged.

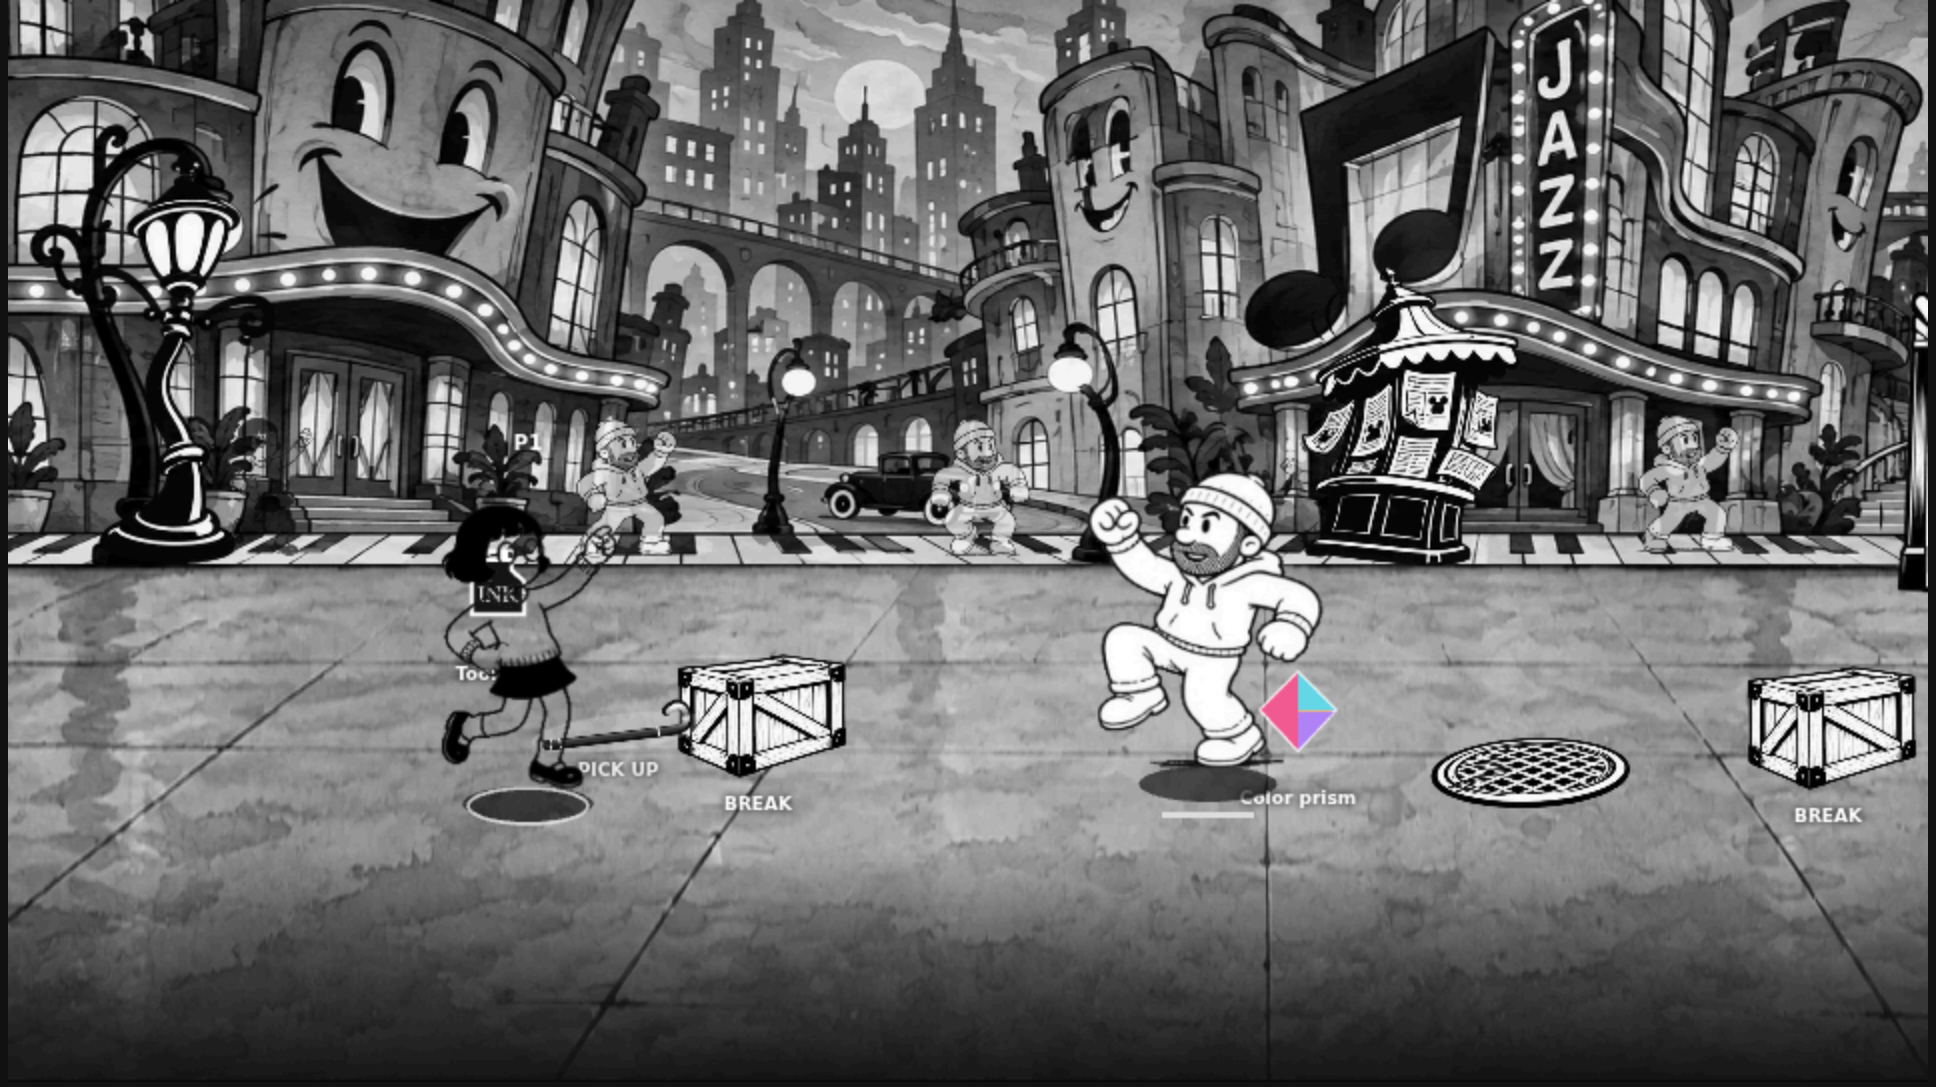

Muggin, standing. The stray leg between them is gone.

Muggin, the kick. The whole pose stays in the frame.

Downbeat, technicolor. They replace the fighters.

Downbeat, ink. Same people, drawn in ink.

Downbeat, groove. The color drawings, in gray.

Small Prix, from in front. Heads face down the road, and they are a little bigger.

Small Prix, from the race camera. They face ahead, so you see the hair.

Small Prix, a glance. They turn aside now and then, not all the way around.
